

Troops 505 and 1505 Scout Personal Gear Weekend Camping Checklist

Edit this list to create your own personal checklist to avoid packing errors.
 Try to pack light, but bring enough equipment to be comfortable, dry, and safe.
 No electronic devices, no matches, no lighters. A Scoutmaster must preapprove personal tents.

	Clothing	Equipment
	Uniform	Duffle bag or Pack
	BSA shirt, short or long sleeve	Sleeping bag suitable for expected weather
	BSA long pants	Extra blanket for cold weather
	BSA shorts or equal (warm weather)	Sleeping pad(s) (required for cold weather)
	BSA belt and buckle	Ground cloth for under or over tent floor
	Cap, official troop or BSA	Water bottle(s) or canteen
	Troop t-shirt	Flashlight(s) with spare batteries, spare bulb
	Scout handbook in waterproof bag	Knife, fork and spoon
	Socks, wool or synthetic, (4) pair	Bowl (plastic or SS) and metal camping cup (or mess kit)
	Underclothing (synthetic preferred)	Personal first aid kit
	Change(s) of clothing, as desired	Small bound pad of paper and pen
	Sleeping clothing	Approved pocketknife (requires tot'en chip)
	Waterproof boots (no sneakers)	Compass
	Change of shoes (optional)	Whistle
	Poncho (required)	Insect repellent - No aerosol cans (warm weather)
	Waterproof jacket, as desired	Sunscreen SPF 30 or greater
	Waterproof pants, as desired	Lip salve with sunscreen
	Sweatshirt or jacket	Duct tape, 3 ft wrapped around pencil or water bottle
	Extra layers for cold weather	Spare boot laces
	Parka, gloves, hat for cold weather
	Plastic bags, large, (4) for dirty and wet clothes and boots	Optional Equipment
	Work gloves	Day pack or waist pack
	Towel	Sunglasses
	Toothbrush and paste	Watch, water resistant
	Liquid soap (camp suds)	Reusable camera
	Comb	Folding chair
	Toilet paper, half roll in zip lock bag	Religious book(s)
	Glasses and hard case, if required	Musical instrument
		Mesh dunk bag
